TK Elevator Service

For elevator maintenance, all good service is local and hands-on. But that's only part of it. The rest depends on technology, expertise, parts inventory and support from a powerful organization.

TK Elevator will commit the full resources of the world's most advanced service organization to your elevators. We have 3,500 certified technicians in over 150 branches across North America. Through this system, we guarantee superior benefits:

Increased safety

Our "safety first" culture ensures passenger safety as well as employee safety.

Extended product life cycle

Our technicians protect your investment through proper maintenance. This extends the life of your elevators.

Enhanced product efficiency

Our technicians ensure your elevators operate at peak performance levels while saving energy.
